NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!
AT Creech's.

I MAKE MY BOW AGAIN TO MY NUMEROUS friends and patrons, with a house full of goods and still they come.
Why, just look, the streets filled with drays all loaded with new Good's

FOR CREECH'S.

Just received, 50 CASES OF DRY GOODS, containing a large and varied assortment; and when you talk about Dress Goods, and when you think of new styles and speak of Goods at the right prices, why, bear in mind that they are here and now opened at Creech's. COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

CALICOES, CALICOES.

I will sell you Calicoes at 8 cen s per yard; want you look at them at 10 cents? and cant you afford to buy them at 12½c.

Goods for Men's and Boy's Wear.

Don't you know that I keep the best assortment in the City? Find that do not know it, come and look at them and to you that do know, come right along and buy what you want. I have got some for the boy's, plenty for the youth's. A fine supply for the young men and enough to keep the old gentlemen warm, so why not spend a few moments at Creech's and satisfy yourselves?

There the remote Bermudas ride
In the Ocean's bosom unespied;
From a small boat that rowed along
The listning winds received this song.
COME TO CREECH'S.

Cloaks and Shawls, Cloaks and Shawls.

Did I say Cloaks and Shawls? That is just what I mean. Why, I will sell them to you for F.O.B. Do you want them cheaper? same quality. Cant find them? Do you want them finer? I am just the man that has them. 5, 6, 8, 10, 12, 15, 20, 25 and 30 dollars; any one that feels like buying will find just any one, and I will take his order for them.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

Just received 100 Cases for Ladies, Misses, Boys and Children; so just put that naked foot into a boot or shoe, for it will soon be cold weather, and my friend, I see your boots are wearing out, and your shoes have a hole in them, so you had just as well come to Creech's and buy a new pair. They look better and fit better, any way; they keep your feet dry and preserve your health.

Hats, Hats, Hats.

Ladies' and Misses' trimmed and untrimmed Bonnets; Would you not do well to spare a few moments and come and look at them?

I beg leave to return my sincere thanks for the patronage I have received for the last 20 years at your hands and I hope, by strict attention to business, representing goods as they are and in every instance giving you the worth of your money, to continue to share a liberal portion of your patronage.

A. CREECH.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR
JAMES H. MOORE, Assistant and Local Editor.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1870.

CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE.
For House of Representatives.
DR. J. H. DUNN,
SPECIAL ELECTION 30TH NOVEMBER, NEXT.

We are authorized to withdraw the name of MR. J. J. OVERBY, as a candidate, and to say that he will support Dr. DUNN, the regular nominee.

PUBLIC DEBT OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Feeling the common anxiety for the maintenance of the credit and character for integrity of our good old State, which every honest native must feel, we have felt called upon to make some suggestions to the approaching General Assembly in reference to the public debt of the State.

The prevailing impression among our people that the State was not able to pay, evidently disinclines our public men to take hold of the question. But delays in the matter of debt are always dangerous, hence we suggest an early investigation into the matter, in order to ascertain first, what is the just and legal indebtedness of the State, and secondly, to inquire into the best means of providing for its liquidation, so as to appreciate and maintain the credit of the State.

As yet, we have suggested no plan ourselves, except the bare mention of the idea, that in our judgment, the resort to compromise would be more likely to effect a more satisfactory arrangement both for the creditors and people of the State, than a continued neglect of the whole question or any scheme which looked to repudiation.

Our remarks we are glad to find, have attracted the notice of bond holders, outside of the State, and called forth a reply from "Amicus," which we published some days ago with some comments. To those comments, "Amicus" replies again, as follows:

BALTIMORE, MD., Oct. 21, 1870.

MR. EDITOR: I observe the SENTINEL of the 20th inst., contains my letter on the State debt of North Carolina, and the following remarks in the editorial preface.

"We are aware, that there are many who believe, that the State could and should, legally repudiate the entire public debt, because, as they very plausibly affirm, the past credit of the State was based upon the only really valuable property then in the possession of our people, and that that property was, by a power which they could not successfully resist, made worthless to them without their consent."

I gladly saw your further accompanying remarks, showing that such views were only plausible. As one of the State creditors, who, with great faith in your people, purchased the bonds of the State, not for speculation but permanent investment, I desire most respectfully, to say to those of your citizens who entertain the views contained in the extract above quoted, that the slave property of North Carolina was not the only valuable property then in the possession of her people. They were there and are now in possession of the entire landed property and the Railroads, the latter having been chiefly made by money received for the old bonds.

The lands and Railroads were real property, fixed and permanent, which although not so readily convertible into money as the slave property, gave the State vastly more credit, as a borrower of money, than twice the amount of perishable property in slaves could have given.

If the argument of loss of property in slaves by the war could be honestly urged against any portion of the public debt of North Carolina, it would be that portion of post bellum debt for which the State received no valuable consideration. The lands, Railroads and all other property belonging to the State before the war and continued in the possession of the State to the present time, should be regarded in the light of a first mortgage to pay the old bonds and their accrued interest—no bonus debt, about which there is no dispute, the State having had quid pro quo.

AMICUS.

We are pleased with the spirit evinced by "Amicus" and are led to hope, that if the same spirit will influence all the creditors of the State, that a satisfactory arrangement can be effected.

But our friend "Amicus" does not seem to feel and feel, the full measure of the embarrassments of our people. There is a desire among all our people to pay all their honest debts, if it were possible for them to do so and yet live. The war not only deprived our people of the money value of their slaves, and left it with a debt which had been accumulating, but it swept away all their stocks and incorporated moneid interests, and simply left their lands and other property depreciated in value, but shingled over with individual indebtedness, which of itself was more than sufficient to have consumed every dollar which the property would have sold for in cash at any time since the war, if put under the Sheriff's hammer! Besides this, the indulgence of the law and the delay to force the collection of interest on the State debt, led our people to go to work with some spirit to remove their burdens. What has been the result? Why, the frequent failure of the crops, perhaps, their ill-judged plans of cropping, the demoralized condition of our labor, and the continued worrying of personal creditors and high taxation the past two years, leaves the people of the State on the 1st day of January, 1871, in a worse pecuniary condition than they were at the end of the war. One-half, if not more, of our former wealthy men and large slave-holders, have been utterly broken up, not being able to pay 25 cents in the dollar on their private indebtedness, while the actual income of all the property of the State has not been more than 3 per cent. per annum, on an average, since the war. The Railroads, canals, &c., in which the State has an interest, have not paid one per cent a year in the last six years or more. These facts we think can be substantiated by undoubted figures. If so, what people on earth have stronger grounds for proposing a compromise than the people of North Carolina!

But it may be said, although the people are thus personally involved, yet the lands, Rail Roads and other property are left, out of which to pay the State's indebtedness.—But let us look at that proposition. What does the entire taxable property of the State and people amount to? The official return says, that it is $124,000,000. Add to this the entire State interest in Rail Roads &c. and it would reach about $130,000,000. Now if the labor and skill of the people produced from this property more than 6 per cent. annually, then we admit there would be some ground for creditors to insist upon full payment; but it is palpable that it does not produce more than 3 per cent. If so, who have a better right to claim indulgence and liberality on the part of creditors more than the people of North Carolina?

U. S. SENATOR.

We have presented to our readers we believe, the name of every gentleman in the State, which has been suggested for the position of U. S. Senator. It is certainly gratifying that we have so many worthy men, both among the named and the unnamed, for that important post. We have, as in duty bound, expressed no preference, nor have we stultified ourselves or our party, by raising objections to any, either personal or political. We believed the General Assembly was fully competent to make a selection without any suggestion from us, being satisfied that that body would exercise great care and sound judgment in making the selection, being guided by the demands of the position and the claims of those who might be brought forward. We have no sympathy with the course of any one who has been disposed to cast fire-brands among us, or who would promote discord by eulogising one and decrying another. It is legitimate to speak well of any and of all, but members of our own household, certainly having a right to claim immunity from our censures, when harmony and concord are so essential. Certainly no gentleman has been named, that we would not fully sustain and support, if elected.

JIM HARRIS AND WENDELL PHILLIPS.

The late Radical candidate for Congress in this district in opposition to Hon. Sion H. Rogers, by whom he was badly beaten, tired of the results of his speech making among his colored brethren here, has recently been making speeches in New England for the Radicals, where he doubtless meets with more favor. Wendell Phillips, the candidate for Governor, of the temperance, women's rights and odds and ends party, in a speech in Boston, the other day, noticed some of the slanders of James Harris upon the people of this State.

Mr. Phillips says, that Harris stated that the secret of the defeat of the Radicals in North Carolina, was, that "armed bands of the Ku Klux Klan, kept ten thousand Republicans from the polls!" That "republican representatives in North Carolina could not safely travel in his district." Phillips thinks that such facts if true, are not creditable to the Radical party, which has been so long reconstructing.

If Harris made these statements, he did it with the knowledge that they were false, and were made for a purpose. No persons in the State were kept from the polls in the late election, except in the counties of Caswell and Alamance, where Conservatives staid at home to avoid Holden' and Kirk's men, who were sent there, to intimidate white voters. As to this district, every man may travel without fear. This Harris knows.

OUR RESOURCES.—Mr. Hubbs, of the Newbern Daily Times, says he learned more of the resources of North Carolina in a week at our State Fair, than he could have learned in four weeks of hard reading and research, and that he pronounces them inferior to none. That is saying a good deal, and we are pleased to hear him talk thus; but if our cotemporary will carry his investigations a little further, he will find out that the experience of the State for the last two years under Radical rule, has done more to lock up her resources and paralyze her efforts, than the war itself. It would have been well for the State and for them, if the carpet baggers generally had acted wisely and learned something about the State, before they attempted to govern her.

NOMINEE.—The Reds of Craven have nominated a Mr. L. J. Moore, as their candidate to fill the vacancy in the State Senate, occasioned by the resignation of Colonel Clarke. The Times speaks of him as a talented young man. We have some acquaintance with Newbern, but who is this talented young man? We have not heard of him before. Is he the son of old Mr. Moore? Ah! where did he come from?—If the Conservatives of Craven and Carteret will put some of their talented young men upon his track, they may tree the young man.

GEN. LEE.—The citizens of Wilkes County met at the Court House in Wilkesboro, on the 22d inst. to do honor to the memory of the late lamented, Gen. Robert E. Lee. Col. H. A. Brown being the senior officer present under G n. Lee's late command, was called to the Chair, and Messrs. J. L. Hunt and S. S. Witherspoon were chosen Secretaries.

A committee was appointed to prepare resolutions. During the absence of the committee, Col. R. F. Armfield, in a most eloquent and touching speech addressed the meeting. The committee reported a series of appropriate resolutions, which were adopted and the meeting adjourned.

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—The death of that great and good man, Robt. B. Gilliam, requires at the hands of the Conservatives of this Congressional district, the selection of some suitable candidate to fill the unexpired term of Jno. T. Dewrese in the present Congress. I am aware our party is environed with difficulties in bringing before the voters of this district its first choice for the position, from the fact, that so many of our best and purest men are "banned." It is a sad reflection upon our Government and the party in power, that they deny to us the political and intellectual worth (to a great extent) of such men as Eaton, Bragg, Amis, Davis Fowle and many others, simply to subserve base party ends and purposes. But facts are stubborn things, and to be successful we must shape our course with due reference to them, in our nominating convention. I claim to have the interests of the people of this Congressional District as much at heart, as any man in it; nor am I so selfish or solicitous as to my individual choice, as to forgot what is due to N. C. and the whole Union. Our main purpose should be to nominate and elect the man who has the proper and necessary qualifications, and who will exert them to advance and promote the prosperity, not only of his immediate constituency, but also of our whole country.—The question is being asked and discussed daily, who shall fill the lamented Gilliam's place in the councils of the nation? And from present indications there is a very great diversity of opinion on this subject. This state of things is neither remarkable or objectionable, and shows a proper appreciation of the task before us. I am aware that we have many men in the District who would, if elected and permitted to take their seats, reflect honor upon themselves, the District and the whole country. But unfortunately for us and our country, most of them are still under the ban, and I must caution the voters of this District to pause and reflect before ignoring the wholesome advice given us by the Democratic Executive Committee at Washington City. Our purpose should be not simply to elect our candidate, but to secure, by the opportunity that will be soon given us, the services of a good working man in the present Congress. Just here permit me to say that I am now, and have ever been, since the organization of the present political parties in North Carolina, a Democrat or Conservative, call me which you please, but I am not so blinded by prejudice or partyism as to swear eternal opposition to a very few men, who claim to be National Republicans; and I congratulate myself in knowing one honest National Republican of profound political sagacity and great literary attainments, that I could, with much pleasure, vote for to fill the vacancy in this district. Of him it may be said, he is a native of North Carolina, his home is upon one of her green hills, and none to the manor born love her better. The time was when honest political convictions drove him from his native home, but now that misfortunes sorely press us, he returns to aid and cheer us in our struggles for unclouded peace and unalloyed prosperity. This man is Daniel R. Goodloe, of Warrenton. He is no stranger to the people of this district, much less to the most prominent men of the Union. Extreme political views do not mar his record, but he is the fast friend of universal suffrage and universal amnesty. His extensive acquaintance with public men and measures, his unalterable devotion to the interest of the people of his native State, together with his enlarged and liberal views of public men and measures, eminently qualify him, in my humble opinion, as the proper man to fill the vacancy in this congressional district.

Very respectfully,
WILCUMA.

SMITHFIELD, N. C., Oct. 22, 1870.

Josiah Turner, Jr., Esq:

DEAR SIR—A Convention of the Conservative party will soon be called for this District, for the purpose of nominating a candidate to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon. R. B. Gilliam. I desire, through your columns, to call the attention of the Convention to the name of L. Eldridge, of Johnston county, as a most suitable person to fill the vacancy. Mr. Eldridge has done great service in the campaign, sacrificing time and money for the cause, during the war a counsellor of State, and now an unflinching supporter of the Conservative party, together with his admitted ability as a lawyer, renders him altogether as good a selection as the Convention can make in the choice of candidates. Old Johnston has never had the honor of being represented in Congress by one of her native citizens, and now she asks to be remembered for the service she has rendered in the past and what she expects to do in the future.

Market quiet and lower at 13½ to 14 cts.

TO THOSE IN ARREARS.—We have commenced sending out our accounts to those who are in arrears for subscription to the SENTINEL, and hope these accounts will receive prompt attention in every instance. Those from whom we may not hear by the meeting of the Legislature, will be considered as desiring the discontinuance of the paper, and we shall erase their names accordingly.

We shall also attach the red cross to the names of those in arrears, that there may be no mistake in regard to their having due notice of their subscriptions having expired.

So, look out for the red mark. tf

CLAIMED.—The piece of jewelry noticed by us yesterday, as having been found at Floral Hall at the Fair grounds, has found its owner. Nothing like advertising.

SLUNG SHOT.—A gentleman picked up a slung shot in Fayetteville street, yesterday morning; a very formidable weapon, dropped there, no doubt, by the owner the night before. The loser can get information concerning it by applying at this office.

OUR CANDIDATE.—It will be seen that Capt. J. J. Overby, who had declared himself as a candidate for the Legislature, has very properly withdrawn in favor of the nominee, Dr. Dunn, and will support him warmly. Capt. Overby, in this, has acted like a true man and true Conservative, and his friends will appreciate the step. Now, let each man, without stopping to daily or parley with our opponents, go to work to elect Dr. Dunn. It can be done and we must do it!

WINTER COMING.—We may look out for a cold snap soon, and that the severity of winter will be upon us at an early day.—The wild geese have been passing for several days toward the South, on which fact we predicate our prediction. The emigration of wild geese and the sand hill cranes is a good sign of the approach of cold weather.

TERRIBLE PREPARATIONS.—We see the carpenters are at work at the jail yard erecting the gallows on which the negro, Stinson, is to be hung on Friday 4th of November. It makes one's blood run cold to look at the timbers being joined together, remembering the use to which the superstructure is to be put.

Stinson has made a full confession of his crimes, but it will not be published until after his execution, which will take place in the jail yard and only a limited number of persons permitted to witness it.

A BAD ROAD.—We have heard serious complaints in regard to the public road leading out from the city, by Mr. Henry Mordecai's place. Where the said road crosses the Pigeon House branch, it is said to be almost impossible, and several vehicles have been broken there lately in attempting to cross it. If there be any overseer of that part of the road he would do well to look to it. We call the attention of the County Commissioners to the matter also; there is said to be a bridge needed there.—We believe they are responsible for damages sustained through their neglect.

Mr. William L. Claiborn, of Hanover county Virginia, aged 60 years recently eloped with Miss Alice Jones, a damsel of about 14 summers.

Accounts from Alabama are very flattering to the prospect of the Democrats carrying the State in the coming election.

The Chronicle and Sentinel Publishing Company have bought the Banner of the South. Parker Ryan will still be editorially connected with it.

Spread the Truth.

Some medical men insist that it is undignified to advertise a remedy, however valuable it may be. Queer reasoning this. It is like saying that an article which the world needs should be hid in a corner—that benefits and blessings may be too widely diffused—that the means of protecting and restoring health should be a close monopoly, and not accessible to all. The argument is false; facts prove that it is inhuman. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters—an absolute specific for dyspepsia, biliousness and nervous debility—had never been known beyond the repertoire of the faculty, what would have been the consequence? Instead of curing and invigorating millions, the good effects of the preparation would have been confined to a comparative few. There is the highest authority for saying that light should not be hid under a bushel; that whatever is excellent should be placed as a city on a hill, where all men can take cognizance of it. It is upon this principle that the Bitters have been advertised, and continue to be advertised in every newspaper of any prominence in the western hemisphere, and that the spontaneous testimonials in its favor have been translated into all written languages. Thousands enjoy perfect health to-day who would be languishing on beds of sickness if the newspapers had not spread the truth with regard to this unequaled invigorant and corrective far and wide. No profit has been reaped from this publicity. Is that any argument against it? If the public health has been protected; if lives have been saved; if the feeble have been strengthened and the sick restored, great good has been accomplished; and who so mean as to grudge to exertions thus directed their fair reward?

CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS.—It will be seen that our correspondents to-day suggest the name of L. Eldridge, of Johnston and D. R. Goodloe, of Warren, as candidates for Congress in place of our lamented fellow citizen, the late Judge Gillam. The names of Capt. J. J. Davis of Franklin, Col. L. C. Edwards of Granville, John Manning of Chatham and Dr. R. B. Haywood, of Wake, have also been named.

The Hillsboro' Recorder we learn, would suggest the name of Henry K. Nash, of Orange, but for his being in debt, and hence puts up the name of our talented fellow-citizen, Maj. Seaton Gales of Wake. The Recorder very truly says, Maj. Gales, "is the worthy son of a noble sire and every way qualified in the highest degree."

Our advice is, call the Convention at once, select the strongest man for the position that can or will run, and then let us all unite as one man to elect him.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.—In this department at our State Fair, no exhibitor made a better showing than Mr. J. H. Thompson, representing the extensive Foundry located at Tyro, Davidson county, N. C.

The plows and agricultural machinery from that establishment attracted much attention at the Fair, and the committee awarded them a large number of premiums and diplomas for excellencies of various kinds.

The establishment is known as the EAGLE FOUNDRY, located in a section of the State where every facility is found for profitable manufacturing, and affording great convenience to the large scope of country around it.

Messrs. W. H. Jones & Co. of this city are Agents for the proprietors, by whom any orders for the plows, threshers, shellers, mowers, fan mills, horse powers or other machinery manufactured at the foundry will be promptly filled.

THE PENITENTIARY.—We took a walk out to this embryo public institution, in company with some gentlemen, yesterday afternoon. It is much more pleasant to pay it a transient visit than to make it a permanent home, although it is pleasantly located, has good water and feeds well.

Since our last visit, the work of quarrying rock, excavating and laying the foundations, and levelling the grounds, has progressed very satisfactorily. There has been but little sickness and no serious case of insubordination among the convicts, numbering now, if we remember rightly, over two hundred and twenty, fully as many as the present facilities will accommodate.

Mr. Coleman, contractor for the rock work, has placed in position a new steam engine for raising the rock from the quarry, and has gotten things in very excellent working order.

DO YOU SEE ANYTHING GREENE?—We propound the query to the Reds about Newbern, in behalf of an old quondam friend, who, having an eye to "the main chance," tried last summer to put himself "in the line of safe precedents" and went over, but, as it happened to Phillips and rotating Dick, went over "just in time to be too late." Since his migration there has been a Judge appointed and a candidate for State Senator nominated in his own county, on neither of which occasions, it seems, could the Governor or the district convention, see anything Greene.

DELEGATES ELECTED.—At a recent meeting of Oak City Council, the following named members were chosen representatives to the State Council which meets in this city on the 30th of November; R. H. Whitaker, W. B. Hutchings, Rev. H. T. Hudson, Rev. Jonathan H. Dally, Theo. N. Ramsay and S. B. Broughton.

Carolina Council, at the last regular meeting, elected the following brethren as representatives to that body: Theo. H. Hill, Virginius Ballard and J. W. Johnson.

POKING FUN AT ITS PARTY.—The Times, (Radical) published at Newbern, has a lively description of a scene in Court before Judge Clarke, conducted by three of the "$20 lawyers," made under the law of the late Radical Legislature. It is true, the Times does not name the Judge nor lawyers, but the description is so pat, appropriate and personal, that no one who reads it can fail to see who he is striking at. The Times ought to be ashamed of thus poking fun at its own party Judges and party-made lawyers.

TO THE PUBLIC

The following certificates will show who was entitled to the premium on Piano Fortes at the late Fair of the N. C. Agricultural Society and by what means it was diverted from its rightful recipient.

It was publicly announced by Mr. Litchford that 2 o'clock was the hour for the Judges to meet. At two minutes past one, Mr. Bohlman Professor at the Raleigh Female Seminary, entered the Hall and was informed it was all over. Time a very small minority, leaving out the very best judges, had awarded the premium to the inferior article. Mr. B. has no desire to cast the least reflection upon any one concerned in the affair. But had judgment taken place at the time appointed, with all the Judges present, the result would have been different.

Raleigh Female Seminary.

MR. J. PRASSON,

Dear Sir:—It gives me great pleasure to testify to the real excellence of your (Great Union Piano Co.,) Piano. In depth of tone and equality of touch they are unsurpassed. They are decidedly the most superior instruments I have tried lately. Wishing you great success.

I remain yours truly,

F. A. BOHLMANN,
Prof. of Music at Raleigh Female Seminary.

I heartily endorse the above certificate.

Tribute of Respect,

OXFORD, N. C. Oct. 3rd, 1870.

At the regular communication of Tuscarora Lodge No. 121, F. A. M., the following report was unanimously adopted:

It was the will of the Heavenly Grand Master, on Thursday the 15th day of last month to end the earthly labors of brother LYMAN LATHAM, a member of this Lodge, in the eighty-sixth year of his life; and to call his spirit to refreshment in His Lodge "not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." In testimony of our appreciation of his virtues as a man and a Mason,

Resolved, That brother LATHAM, who was the oldest member of this Lodge, and perhaps, the oldest Mason in the State having been a Mason for more than sixty years, exemplified, in his life, the tenets of his order, "relief, truth and brotherly love," that his appreciation of Masonry was attested, by his affiliation with his brethren always when a Lodge was in existence near enough for him to attend; and his devotion to the craft, by being ever ready to aid and assist a worthy brother, also to give him good counsel.

Resolved, That as a citizen of this place for more than fifty years, and as a christian for nearly fifty years in communion with the Presbyterian Church, brother Latham spent a life of great usefulness in this community and one of irreproachable integrity. As a christian he was meek and humble, as a Mason fervent and zealous, as a citizen orderly and enterprising, as a man industrious and honest.

Resolved, That we tender to his widow and family our sincere sympathies in their affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be sent to the family of our deceased brother and also copies to the papers of the City of Raleigh with our request that they publish the same.

Respectfully and Fraternally submitted,

JAS. T. LITTLEJOHN,
JAS. H. HOOKER,
T. M. LYNCH.

Married,

In Harnett county on 19th inst., by Rev. Neill McKay, D. D., Mr. WILLIAM K. MCNEILL son to Miss MARY E. McLEOD.

DIED,

In this City, yesterday morning (Thursday,) at 4 past 5 o'clock, Mrs. PENELOPE SMITH, relict of the late Richard Smith, in the 83d year of her age.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. PENELOPE SMITH, will take place at her late residence at 3 o'clock P. M. to day, (Friday afternoon.) The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE undersigned hereby announces to the members elect to the Houses of Representatives of the ensuing General Assembly, that he is a candidate for Principal Doorkeeper of that House. He would refer to the former members of the Gen'l Assembly, in which he has served as Doorkeeper, for testimonials as to his fitness. JNO. M. HILL.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Thursday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—A circular from the Revenue department directs assessors to demand from liquor dealers a statement of the stock of brandy, gin, rum, whisky, highwines, alcohol and cash brandies on hand, outside of the bonded warehouse; imported and domestic liquors must be separate. The statements required by the 15th of November.

The latest European news is verbose and seeks apparently unfavorable to an armistice or to an early peace.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND Oct. 27.—Ex Mayor Chatham has been convicted of forgery and sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. His counsel will ask a new trial.

UTAH.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 27.—Large amounts of ore have been shipped hence both east and west. A large number of strangers are visiting and all admiring the scenery.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The World's special from London says, the English ministry are annoyed by the cool but absolute refusal of Russia to consent to a Congress. The Chancellor of the Russian Cabinet has been at Brussels and Tours and is expected at London. It is inferred that Russia contemplates including England, both France and Germany on the Eastern question. The steps taken by the English Government have resulted only in mortification for the Gladstone ministry, showing the weakness of English influence in continental affairs, without countenancing onward a settlement.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Prince Napoleon publishes a letter contradicting the charges of the Daily News of his disloyalty to the Emperor. The Empress also denies having been Bourbaki or Boyer who came from Rome to the Empress. The Prince reposited papers early in the Empress' possession of devotion and fidelity.

The Mayor of Verdun indignantly refuses to surrender and challenges the Prussians to come and take the town.

The military situation on the Loire is unchanged.

The garrison at Metz shows increased activity. The Forts are compelled to destroy the bridge at Ars on Moselle as a precautionary measure. The garrison makes damaging sorties every morning and has also opened with artillery from the right bank of the Moselle, destroying the little villages that sheltered the Prussians.

No doubt the French Government will soon be compelled to leave Tours. Arrangements are progressing to transfer the Government head quarters to Clermont.

The Prussians are persevering in the starving policy at Paris and Metz; fugitives from those cities are turned back.

The English ministry are without reply from Prussia up to noon to day; the ministry accepts the delay as indicating indisposition on the part of Prussia to an armistice.

TOURS, Oct 27.—It is announced that the Prussians have at last granted Thiers a safe conduct to Versailles, but no further. He declines its acceptance, as he must consult with the Paris authorities.

No important military movements are announced.

A large portion of the army of the Duke of Mecklenburg, Schwerin, is moving rapidly towards Paris, abandoning St. Quentin. There is also a movement on Amiens. The siege of La Fere is raised.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 27.—The official count of the votes in the State election began on Tuesday and proceeds slowly. The results so far confirms the unofficial estimates.

FOREIGN.

TOURS, Oct. 27.—It is asserted that the Prussians will hold a safe conduct from Thiers from Paris, having the Parisians to learn the true feeling throughout France. From all parts of the country come hopes that the government will accept no humiliating terms.

The Prussian movement eastward has been stopped. The march upon Lyons has been checked by Garibaldi's victories. Garibaldi has driven the Prussians to Dijon, capturing many prisoners and cannon. He has accomplished the object for which he went forth.

Parties who furnish the enemy willingly or forced proofs, will be court martialled as traitors. Mayors must defend every town. Those failing will be dismissed and the towns will be officially denounced.

The inhabitants of the departments of Juva and Vosges, petition against a peace, involving a cession of territory.

He confirms the accounts lately published of the successful sortie of Bazaine, and says that the city and garrison are well provisioned and able to hold out indefinitely.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The steamer "Cambria" drifted ashore at Islay, Scotland. McMahon, as far as known, is the only survivor. It is reported that Russia, England and Italy, concur in Acosta's candidature for the French throne.

It is reported on the best authority that French cruisers burned two German ships recently.

THE PAIN KILLER.

This celebrated medicine has won a deservedly high reputation as an alleviator of pain and a preserver of health. It has become a household remedy, from the fact that it gives immediate and permanent relief. It is a purely vegetable preparation, made from the best and purest materials, safe to keep and to use in every family. It is recommended by physicians and persons of all classes, and to day, after a public trial of thirty years—the average life of man—it stands unrivalled and unexcelled, spreading its usefulness over the wide world. Its large and increasing sale affords positive evidence of its enduring fame. We do not deem it necessary to say much in its favor as one small bottle will do more to convince you of its efficacy than all the advertisements in the world. Give it one fair trial and you would not be without it for ten times its cost.

Directions accompany each bottle.

A CHALLENGE.

With all respect and due deference to the committee, I must insist that the mode of judging who is the meritorious competitor for the premium on Flour at the late State Fair at Raleigh was a perfect farce; as any miller can furnish a barrel of good Flour if he has (10) ten bushels of good wheat to make it of. But any miller will tell you that it should be the best result in quality and quantity of production from a given number of bushels, if wheat, the miller that can bring the production of a given number of bushels to the highest merchantable value. This should be the test. If I should excel without some such guide as this, I would not consider that I deserved a compliment, much less a premium.

I do not know or care who may be the unmerited competitor at the State Fair, I will challenge him or any one else who exhibited flour there, for a TWENTY DOLLAR GOBLET, for the best production from fifty bushels of wheat, each competitor to furnish one tenth of the entire result of everything made from the fifty bushels wheat, flour, bran, shorts, &c., &c., on exhibition at our Fair of the Cape Fear Agricultural Society to be held the 15th of November, at Wilmington, N. C.

It may be there is as much honor in securing your competitor, as excelling him; but there is not as much satisfaction. There was not one miller that would accept my challenge at the State Fair.

Those competing are expected to share the hospitalities of the challenger during the week of the Fair.

THE MOST VIGOROUS AND PROGRESSIVE COMPANY IN THE WORLD.

The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,
GENERAL AGENTS,
CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,500,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $1,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealing so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1, 1869, was $51,021,141.00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division; and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $15,000 000 greater than any other company.

Also, all the chattle property. This property is so well known that any particular description is deemed unnecessary. When this is done and it will be accomplished in a few weeks, this property will be immensely valuable. The property will be sold for cash and unless parties from a distance come in competition, it must be greatly sacrificed.

in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen, & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 3½ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet. Size Bale 4½ feet 12x28x50 in.; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the cash values of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies to which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
